

Subject: Support North Lawndale College Prep this #GivingTuesday!

#GIVING TUESDAY™

Mark your calendars: #GivingTuesday is on December 3!

NLCP is excited to participate in #GivingTuesday, an international charitable day of giving to support organizations making a difference in their communities and in the world. This year, we are raising money to support our college readiness programs that prepare our students for the world of higher education. These programs are a vital aspect of every NLCP scholar's journey, exposing them to the experiences and opportunities that help make success in college a reality.

Stay tuned as we elevate the voices of NLCP alumni who have benefitted from NLCP's college preparation and support programs and found success in college and life after graduation. Visit our campaign site to learn more about our fundraising efforts and college preparation programs. We hope you'll be inspired to support our #GivingTuesday campaign and help North Lawndale students get to and through college!

“NLCP college preparation programs give youth the opportunity to experience and learn things they may have never thought would be possible.”

- Rashae Butler, NLCP class of 2014, Western Illinois University class of 2018, University of Illinois at Chicago class of 2019
